The greatest man may ask a foolish question, now and then.

EDNA ADAMS

Always laughing, never sad, sometimes naughty, never bad.

SHIRLEY ALLEN

Not quantity do we find here, but pleasing quality.

BARBARA BAREFOOT

We grow like what we think of.

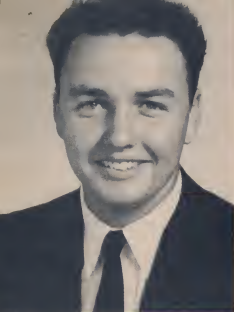

SHIRLEY BAREFOOT

I live for those who love me.

J. D. BAREFOOT

That what will come, and must come, shall come well.

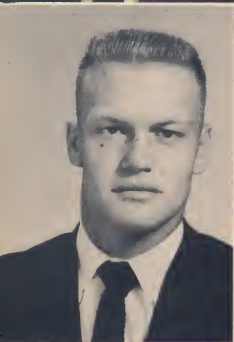

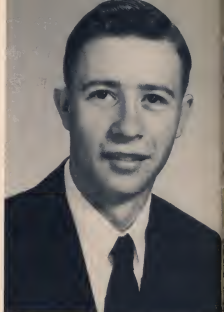

SENIORS

RAY BAREFOOT

Eat, drink, and be merry for tomorrow
I may die.

WADE BAREFOOT

Nothing risked; nothing lost.

THOMAS BAREFOOT

Girls may come and girls may go but not if I can help it.

HAZELINE BEASLEY

When joy and duty clash; let duty go to smash.

JOYCE BEASLEY

Humble I am, humble I have been, humble I shall ever be.

LLOYD BLACKMAN

Is he so quiet and demure? Maybe but don't be too sure.

SENIORS

ROBERT BLACKMAN

They are good, they are bad, wise, foolish, so am I.

MARY LOU BRYAN

When duty whispers low thou must,
the youth replies I can.

LA RENA CAPPS

She reminds us of champagne, always bubbling.

MAX DUDLEY

Some claim he is bashful, but I doubt it.

HELEN HAYES

It matters not what you are thought to be, but what you are.

PATRICK HUDSON

Take therefore no thought for the morrow, for the morrow shall take care of itself.

SENIORS

CHARLES JOHNSON

Gentlemen: We have a master; this young man does everything, can do everything, and will do everything.

EUGENE JOHNSON

What care I when I can be at rest, kill time and take life at its very best.

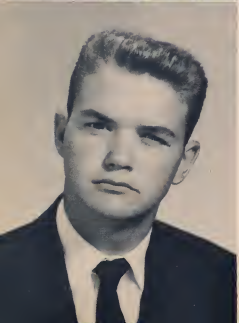

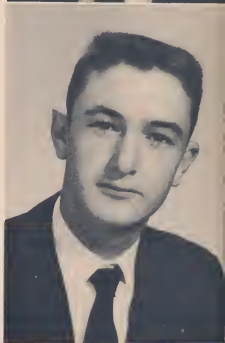

HEBER JOHNSON, JR.

A ladies' man was he, strong and fair to see.

JOHN B. JOHNSON

A smile to every spoken word; a wit to everything heard.

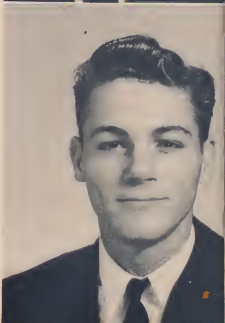

THEL JOHNSON

Life is a jest; all things show it; thought so once, and now I know it.

ANTON KENNEDY

I am the master of my fate, the captain of my soul.

SENIORS

BOBBY LANGSTON

Easy to please, easy to understand;
easy-going in everyday.

FRANCES LEE

Still water runs deep.

JOSEPHINE LEE

I have no mockings or arguments, I witness and wait.

VARIE LEE

We are born to be happy, all of us.

KENNETH MARLER

Character is higher than intellect-- a great soul will be strong to live, as well as to think.

BONDELL MARTIN

To be or not to be; that is the question.

SENIORS

BILLY R. McLAMB

Let me live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man.

CLAYDENE McLAMB

Speech is great, but silence is better.

ERNESTINE McLAMB

To be efficient in a quiet way--that's my aim for every day.

RUTHELENE McLAMB

She has a heart with room for every joy.

SHELBY McLAMB

Whatever is worth doing, is worth do-fame, give me truth.

SENIORS

JANICE MOORE

It is well for one to know more than he says.

MARLENE MORGAN

Softly speak and sweetly smile.

GLENN PARKER

Judge me as you will, I am what I am.

RUBY JEAN ROYALS

A soft answer turneth away wrath.

NANCY SMITH

She's kind, she's modest, sincere and true, more studious, more generous than most of you.

EDNA FAYE TART

Never idle, never still, always talk-

Foreword

As this the last year of high school for the 1956 graduating class closes, it is with a touch of sadness that we recall the friendships, the happiness, and activities we have shared during the years. It is our sincere hope that the events duplicated on these pages will serve to recall memories of the days we have spent at Meadow High School. With this thought we present this, the tenth volume of the TUSCARORA.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. E. G. Gibson, who passed away during summer vacation, 1955, was a member of the Meadow High School faculty for four years. He was loved, respected, and honored by both teachers and students. His "arf, arf" and "Do you still love me?" will continue to enrich our future as they did our past.

DEDICATION

As graduation draws nearer, we have one last but loving dedication to make. Through two of our best years in high school, we have had a wonderful and kind person to guide us. Her devotion to us through our many problems and pleasures make us warmly grateful. For the unselfish time she has spent with us, for the encouragement she gave to push us onward, we, the Senior Class of 1956, dedicate this volume of the Tuscarora to Mrs. RUBY STEWART.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Meadow girls, after having a number of disappointing seasons, have responded to the coaching of Miss Altha Jean Warren by winning many opening games this season. Several of the opposing teams have tasted the brutal scoring of these girls. We hope that this young team will continue to win victories throughout the future basketball seasons.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Meadow boys have really make headlines this year. The team is now rated first place in the county. Jack Temple, the coach has aided the boys in getting to the top. These boys have high hopes of winning the County Championship and with their excellent start they should do so successfully. We hope that the future teams of Meadow school can follow in their footprints and make as good a record as the Indians of 1955-1956.

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

As we, the Seniors of 1956, leave Meadow High, we shall carry with us the memories of these--our last years together.

It was April 1, 1955 when the Daffy Dills made their first appearance. No, don't get me wrong--these Dills were not flowers at all. They were the graduation class of '56, as juniors, presenting their first play, The Daffy Dills, so called because the Dill family was so--well they were just daffy.

Viewing the cast, we'll remember Edna Adams and J. D. Barefoot, as the pert-faced, thirteen-year old Dill twins (Doris and Dud), who were full of mischief and silly stunts--keeping the elder members of the cast ill at ease and the audience rolling with hearty laughter.

There was Thomas Barefoot, playing the role he was really cut out for--(Pete Norton). You're right! Pete was a guy of seventeen, a handsome, husky fellow, with his own ideas of an athlete. Keeping the Dill family at a state of irritation was Jean McLamb (Carol Dill) a pretty, romantic, school girl, with dash, style, and charm, who was always and ever waiting for Pete's phone call.

We'll never erase the memory of Charles Johnson (Richard) as the head of this nauseating Dill family. Richard was a handsome, extremely likeable business man--and strictly business he was! But, who would it take to change this, so called, business disposition, but Barbara Barefoot (Elaine Escott) whom he secretly planned to marry.

To continue our great romances, we can't possibly forget Shelby Westbrook (Aimee Lovewell) a pretty, baby-faced, ash, blonde of sixteen, who was "thimply cwazy", over Heber Johnson (Rodney Dill) a good-looking high-school lad, who--it seemed would never grow out of the cowboy stage.

Naturally every play has to have a climax. Mary Lou Bryan, Cousin Maude Maddox, as we remember her helped bring this about by scaring the wits out of everyone with her pet python. This scene brought Ellen Tart (Arnica Jukes) a plump, negro of forty into an uproar, scaring her back to "Alabama." Ernestine McLamb (The Widow Woggles) with her shrill, nasal voice added plenty of laughter to the hilarious play.

Last but not least, we remember Nancy Smith (Grandmother Dill) as the dearly loved Gran, who was always reading and eating candy in an old fashioned rocking chair.

From the beginning to the end, these Dills were blooming alright--but with success, not from the process of nature.

On April 30, 1956 the Juniors of Meadow High School entertained the Seniors at the annual Banquet.

A big feast of fried chicken, pineapple salad, garden peas, creamed potatoes, iced-tea and all the "extras" made the banquet a wonderful success. After the dinner came the toasts made by such professionals as Senioritas Ann Williams, Eloise Johnson and Senors Ray Barefoot, Larry Tart, and John B. Johnson. Mr. Harriett then made a farewell speech to the Seniors wishing them the best of luck for the future.

Entertainment was provided by the gaily dressed waiters and waitresses, who shook the joint with a Mexican Hat Dance. Seniorita Mary Lou Bryan captured the hearts of all as she swung and swayed to the rhythm of moroccos.

The Rhythm Kings took over the festival in the gymnasium, where couples danced gracefully back and forth to the music. As the evening drew to an end, Old Mexico had captured all hearts--south of the border and added another phrase to these--our memories.
